

SELECTED FILMS by Jane Gray Morrison
Producer, Associate Producer, and/or Co-Director

"YASUNÍ – A MEDITATION ON LIFE," (Producer, Executive Producer), for the UNDP Yasuní-ITT Initiative. A twenty-minute film for the Rio+20 U.N. Earth Summit, 2012.

"STATE OF THE EARTH," (Director), Three one-hour documentaries in studio hosted by Alexandra Paul and Peter Kreidler, a Dancing Star Foundation and Earth Service Production, 2011.

"HOTSPOTS," A Dancing Star Foundation feature documentary (Co-Producer, Co-Executive Producer) –Saving the most endangered species and habitats on Earth, 2008.

"NO VACANCY," A Dancing Star Foundation feature documentary, with Population Communication (Co-Producer) –The human population explosion and its impact on the environment, Hosted by Bob Gillespie, 2006.

"MAD COWBOY," A Dancing Star Foundation feature documentary, with Voice for a Viable Future (Associate Producer) –The tragedy of industrial agriculture and animal rights, Hosted by Howard Lyman, based upon Lyman's book by the same title, Produced by Dr. Patrick Fitzgerald, 2005.

"A DAY IN THE LIFE OF IRELAND," PBS-WNET/RTL-Dublin (Co-Director) - Landscape and cultural aesthetics across Ireland, 1992.

"VOICE OF THE PLANET," TBS, Ten-hour dramatic miniseries (Senior Producer) based upon Tobias's novel by the same title –A biography of life on Earth, starring William Shatner and Faye Dunaway, 1990.

"THE MAKING OF VOICE OF THE PLANET," TBS, One-hour (Producer) 1990.

"ANTARCTICA – The Last Continent," PBS, One-hour documentary, (Associate Producer) - An examination of the world-park initiative for Antarctica, and the many threats to this continent's future, 1987.